At All Costs Honor Harrington

At All Costs continues the Harrington Saga in much the way its been unfolding, if you've made it this far you've already decided you're a fan of Weber's style and characterizations. His style is what it is, I personally love the technical explanations, but I know it can be jarring for some.

At All Costs - Special Limited Edition by David Weber ...

I've always seen Honor as a growing, changing individual. The mainstream novels have spanned a period of approximately twenty years as of the end of At All Costs (and taken us twelve years in our own, more plebian real life), and the Honor Harrington of this book isn't the Honor Harrington of On Basilisk Station. She's grown, changed.
