China: A Macro History (An East Gate Book): Ray Huang ...

A (content-wise) interesting thematic history of China, albeit one that shows its age. It's too dry to be a popular history, but does too little to situate itself in within contemporaneous scholarship to be academic. As its title suggests, Huang's book is a macro-level treatment of Chinese from the Shang dynasty to the post-Mao era.

China: A Macro History by Ray Huang - Goodreads

China: A Macro History was first published in November 1988. Most of the material was drafted two or three years earlier. My trip to Harbin in 1987 (see below) enabled me to put some finishing touches on it. Suffice it to say that the book is ten years old. Pressure has built up to revise it.
