Best Served Cold by Joe Abercrombie - Goodreads

In Joe Abercrombie's latest book Best Served Cold you are thrown smack dab back into the circle of the world he created. Shoulder to shoulder with some of the same characters made me smile as I could see the under currents and references alluded to from The First Law series.

Best Served Cold by Joe Abercrombie book review

Abercrombie is a master of characterization and can make the reader care about even the most despicable characters- you can want Monza to succeed at the same time you want her to show mercy to a victim who turns out to be innocent. Spoilers ahead: The most clever thing in Best Served Cold, the one that provides the most emotional impact, is the ...

Best Served via an audiobook! Would you listen to Best Served Cold again? Why? Having already done a read of First Law series in the print version, I was forced to revisit all of them simply by the strength of Pacey's storytelling skills. It's not a book for the faint hearted (like all of Joe Abercrombie's books).

Joe Abercrombie - Wikipedia

And so we come to Best Served Cold, which is the last of these rereads I'll be doing for the time being. The Heroes was pretty recent and I feel it's still pretty firmly in mind, and the nominal aim of this exercise was to familiarise myself with past characters and events while finishing work [...]

Best Served Cold - reread | Joe Abercrombie

review Joe Abercrombie's new stand-alone novel Best Served Cold is a light-on-magic and heavy-on-swords blood-soaked revenge quest that will highly satisfy fantasy fans with a black sense of humour and a taste for gritty and violent prose.. The book's clever pacing, frequent plot twists and likeable (or hilariously despicable) characters will leave many readers unable to put it down.

Reviewed by Joshua R Parker . Joe Abercrombie's debut First Law Trilogy earned critical acclaim for its grittiness, fast paced combat, and sharply drawn characters. His newest novel Best Served Cold continues to serve up delightfully flawed characters in a tense and dangerous environment where the consequences of conflict damage the victor almost as much as the vanquished.
