Box Out is a great book. The best thing about the book was the moral of the story which was to stick up for what you believe in. However, Box Out is about a teenager named Liam who has to struggle with praying in his public schools since he was just recently moved up to the varsity basketball team. Also his girlfriend Lilly is away at France.

BOX OUT - Book Info

Also, John Coy put a lot of character and made each character different, which made the book more interesting in my opinion. In the book Box Out some themes are courage, perseverance and hard work. Liam works very hard day in and day out practicing his skills. He in the end succeeds. That is one of the biggest things I admire about him.
