For your information, I bought both versions (6 and 7) of Ghori's book. I think you should be able to only use the RHEL 6 version of the book because a good part of the exam objectives is exactly the same. However, you will need to learn Systemd seriously. Finally, don't forget to practice the password recovery procedure that is different and causes a lot of exam failures.

I notice the California utility PG&E has announced the intention to file under Chapter 11 on January 29th--obviously the preferred shares are off plenty today and are trading around $11-15/share. Will there be opportunity here in the future? We don't plan to get involved in any way with this situation--purely speculative and not where we ever want to play at our age.

nothing crazy about deciding to spend big bucks for what amounts to a label. I've also heard the analogy that Apple's like living in the city, where everything's controlled; Windows is living in the suburbs, where there's still control but a lot more freedom; and Linux is rural--lots of freedom, but hardly anyone to tell you what to do, even if you want it.
