Amazon.com: Blinding Light: A Novel (0046442711968): Paul ...

The early sections of Theroux's indulgent new novel, Blinding Light, capture all too well the feeling of being trapped in tight spaces with a noxious band of fellow tourists whose whining voices are united in an amplified chorus. Theroux without doubt presents his middle-aged author hero as an alter ego, but in the process, he betrays a total ...

Paul Theroux: Blinding Light

Blinding Light is familiar Theroux-territory: the autobiographically-based fiction. In the travel-details (the unpleasant trip to Ecuador or even the book-tour) as well as the reminiscences (his first marriage, his first book, his relationship with Ava) Theroux impresses and entertains.

Observer review: Blinding Light by Paul Theroux | Books ...

Theroux's 40th book is the novel writers usually produce early in their careers: a Portrait of the Artist as Unregenerate Egomaniac. He's Slade Steadman, the 50-year-old blocked author of a single spectacularly successful book, an account of his world travels accomplished without passport entitled—ominously enough—Trespassing. We first meet Slade accompanied by his girlfriend Ava, a ...
