A Sweet Disorder book by Jacqueline Kolosov

A Sweet Disorder follows main character Miranda Molyneux through her adventures at the court of Queen Elizabeth I. Unlike Kolosov's previous novel, there isn't a supernatural aspect to this plot. At first, I was relieved, but then I was bored to tears.

A Sweet Disorder is about a young girl living in Elizabethan England trying to overcome the dreadful situation her father's untimely death. Although A Sweet Disorder is by no means the worst book I've ever read it certainly doesn't win any points for its unoriginal plot, 2 - dimensional characters and unrealistic "history".
