Boundaries in Marriage Should Be Used Second or Third for Less Severe Situations. Instead, loving communication should be used first. Loving communication is not criticizing or complaining (those are not loving). Loving communication is telling your spouse what you want and why it is important for the both of you.

Boundaries in Marriage and Relationships - Jack Ito PhD

Most people think of boundaries in marriage as bondage. In reality they are the key to keeping your marriage healthy. Think of a four-way stop or a railroad crossing signal. These are in place to protect you from danger." Dr. Banks encourages couples to talk about these issues and to put a plan in place that builds up their marriage.

How Boundaries Can Protect Your Marriage | First Things First

In the simplest sense, a boundary is a property line. It denotes the beginning and the end of something. In the physical world, boundaries are often easy to see – fences, walls, signs, hedges, or sometimes only a slightly different appearance of the lawn. All this signs indicate the borderline of someone's property.
