A STUDY IN DARKNESS concluded smashingly but it took a long time to get there. Although I liked that the love triangle was finally resolved however it felt like the parties involved are settling because they can't have who they want. The business involving Keating and his clever manipulations took the longest to come into fruition and the ...

Darkness can be defined as "an absence of light." Since "God is light and in Him is no darkness at all" (1 John 1:5 RSV), it's natural that the physical creation (see The Seven Days Of Creation) began with the displacement of darkness: "The earth was without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep; and the Spirit of God was moving over the face of the waters.

It is actually a good idea to study in the dark with a desk lamp. It helps you u to fully concentrate on your studies. I tell you why, because whatever our eyes sees,our brain has a tendency to think of it automatically. And if you restrict yourself then it's impossible. You cannot restrict yourself not to think of it.
