Atlantis Rising Ta Barron

"Barron is a great storyteller, and the pacing, action, and adventure in Atlantis Rising will keep readers glued to the pages. Readers as young as 10 will be captivated, and there are thematic elements, e.g., sacrificing for others, prayer, supreme beings, that may make for great discussion topics with older readers.

I gave Atlantis Rising by T.A. Barron a pretty fair shot I'd say—200 of its 370 pages, but eventually I just had to give it up. And I wasn't alone in that, as my wife and 13-yr-old son gave up far, far quicker.

Atlantis Rising (Atlantis Saga): T. A. Barron ...

The first book of the saga, Atlantis Rising, reveals the secret untold story of the creation of Atlantis. This book describes how Atlantis was created, what people were central to its birth, and why this magical place had such power and inspiration from the wonders of nature — rather than its final destruction, a story that has been told often and touched many of us deeply.

Atlantis Rising by T.A. Barron - MarketWatch

Atlantis Rising explores a rare mythology—it's not about the sinking of Atlantis, but instead about the origins of the island. Barron, author of many acclaimed fantasies, creates a story that is thrilling from the opening pages, weaving together magic, prophecy, mythology, selfishness and sacrifice.

Atlantis Rising by T.A. Barron - Review | BookPage

In Atlantis Rising, Barron promises to introduce readers to the wonder of the mythical island before its fall. Despite the presence of magic, however—indeed, the book makes it a point to mention several times the prevalence of enchantment in the land, as well as the unique and varied wildlife—the story proves a little lackluster.
