West is best! East is least! Culturally speaking, of course. Rather, that is the premise of Victor Davis Hanson's interesting Carnage and Culture. Before I go on, let me stress the interesting, for I mean that in the very Confucian sense of the word. Hanson apes John Keegan's Face of Battle in using a case study approach of selected battles to prove a larger point.

Carnage and Culture: Landmark Battles in the Rise of ...

Carnage and Culture falls into the category of historical survey, more akin to John Keegan's A History of Warfare, raising intriguing questions, which beg further analysis. What Carnage and Culture may lack in depth is amply compensated by sheer eloquence.
