killing joy as a world making project. Listening to those who have made or tried to make formal complaints about abuses of power within institutions is teaching me about institutional mechanics; how institutions work; how different parts fit together. The testimonies I have gathered zoom in on processes that are usually obscure, if perceived only dimly perceived, because of how institutions work.

In this issue of 580 Split, we invited writing and visual art that reflects on the breaches of our current political climate, the ways these breaches have scarred and marked us, and moments that break through the surface of the status quo to create something new. Though these are dangerous times for the vulnerable and marginalized among us, we were interested in writing that explores the ...
