The Jesus Prayer, also known as The Prayer, is a short formulaic prayer esteemed and advocated especially within the Eastern churches: "Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner." The prayer has been widely taught and discussed throughout the history of the Orthodox Church. The ancient and original form did not include the words, "a sinner", which were added later.

Firstly, I think it's important to try and define our term. Many theologians within the Church, as well as historians have reservations about the use of the term 'Celtic Christianity' or 'Celtic Church' because it encourages the response 'What do we mean by the terms?' and involves us in a long debate as to how we separate fact from fable, mysticism from myth.
