Before She Met Me Julian

For me, this book looked like a mix of pornography + a weak attempt at some psychological analysis. It was ugly, it was boring, it was disgusting at some places and totally implausible at others. I'm glad I'm done with it and I hope other books by Barnes are more like Talking It Over than Before She Met Me.

Before She Met Me is a book filled with the great British humor of Julian Barnes. It has its flaws, to be sure, but they are minor ones. One of the characters is truly reprehensible, but his appearances are so few and far between that I think his horrid behavior can easily be overlooked.

Before She Met Me

It was followed by Before She Met Me (1982), an intense portrait of the dark side of the human heart which features a man's jealous obsession with his wife's former lovers. After these two fairly traditional linear novels, Barnes' first major success came with Flaubert's Parrot (1984), his first book to be written in an experimental, non-linear ...

Julian Barnes - Literature

Instead of insightful observation, it drifts along in self-indulgent adolescent argumentum ad misericordiam.'Before She Met Me' is fashioned around a very interesting existential premise: Julian Barnes has developed a very bounded situation focused on the study of fidelity and, by extension, ownership, extending in time back to before the ...
