Blowing It About book: Drinks flowed, songs were sung, the table next to us ended up unofficially joining our party, then we merged with the one next, joining forces against those opposite as we got sucked into a good-natured karaoke sing-off. Elaine talked Ryan into accompanying her for a terrible rendition of "Paradise by the Dashboard Lights," then some bastard put me down for "Love ...

There's something magical about Kate Aaron's writing. When I read the Free Men trilogy a few months ago I fell in love with Kate's words, her characters and her descriptions of the world they live in. Since Free Men is a fantasy while Blowing It is a contemporary romance, there are an endless amount of differences between the stories.
