I have worshipped in churches and chapels, I have prayed in the busy street; I have sought my God and found Him Where the waves of the ocean beat; I have knelt in the silent forest, In the shade of some ancient tree, But the dearest of all my altars Was raised at my mother's knee . I have listened to God in His temple I have caught His voice in the crowd; I have heard Him review 1: As a scouser myself, I really enjoyed this book being familiar with all the places he writes about is obviously helpful, but even so Paul paints the pictures with his words very well. This cover's his early years ending when he is in his 18th year, he does not hide or candy coats his experiences which I believe says a lot about his character, it could have been all too easy to show ...

At my mothers Knee - May. As Mother's Day approaches, thoughts of my mother seem to be with me all the time. Sometimes so intense I feel like I could "reach out and touch her" sometimes so obscure I have to close my eyes to see her face. I see her standing at the kitchen window with a look of longing on her face.

Isla Grant - Mothers Chair lyrics Theres an old arm chair, and it means the world to me, for i used to sit there, upon my mothers knee. And she'd read to me the stories, that children love to hear. Now theres no one to sit in mother's chair. I still recall the many times, the words she'd say to me, fight for all your dreams, turn them to reality.
