Easter is around the corner, so it's time to dive into the veganising of all things brunchy, eggy and bready. So this time we veganised the popular Japanese Hokkaido Milk Bread for you, which is quite similar to the French Brioche or Dutch Duivekater. Delicious with just a lick of vegan butter, a dollop of marmalade, or let's go crazy, chocolate sprinkles.

What makes this time of year so undeniably special? Is it the fridge stocked with spiked eggnog? Is it presents? Is it the suspicious look in your great-aunt's eyes as she passes you the mashed potatoes and asks you what you've really been doing at college and if you have a plan for after graduation? No!

Hello Cruel World. Hello Cruel World, with its many versions of Americana, is expertly and sincerely free of cliches, or false romantic notions about any subject it addresses. Its large spiritual truths are revealed in the only way they matter: small, intimate experiences. This album comes to the listener as a gift wrapped in tattered paper, making it all the more precious to receive.
