Review: Bicycle Diaries - Book by David Byrne | Bike198

David Byrne's Bicycle Diaries is 303 pages of poetic city planning sandwiched between occasionally moving and often-times thought-provoking stories from cities around the world. The bicycle fanatic may be a bit disappointed, however, as the two-wheeled people mover plays little role in David's book. In reality, the bike is nothing more than a background character, there only to get our ...
