Beyond the Rift. I realized something else, too: the eyes, the ears of my dead skin had fed into this thing before its removal. A massive bundle of fibers ran along the skin's longitudinal axis, right up the middle of the endoskeleton, leading directly into the dark sticky cavity where the growth had rested.

In the end, Beyond the Rift is a good, quality selection of stories from Peter Watts that represents the majority of his output of shorts as of 2013. Austere, isolating, visceral, gloomy—however you want to describe it, there is an underlying connection to the spark of life inside humanity that can't be denied.

Speculiction...: Review of Beyond the Rift by Peter Watts

Praise for Beyond the Rift 2017 Grand Prix de l'Imaginaire Nominee Known for his pitch-black views on human nature, and a breathtaking ability to explore the weird side of evolution and animal behavior, Watts is one of those writers who gets into your brain and remains lodged there like an angry, sentient tumor."
