Each flashback brings a whole new meaning of Breaking Point. Flashbacks are the strongest weapons of Breaking Point. They are moments of peace. Of what little joy Ember had in her life. Of harmony. Of the sense of normal. The plot... I like the plot. It's even better than Article 5. The writing really flow. It was easy to understand. The action...

I thought Breaking Point was slightly less impressive than Article 5. It was a good read, though, and was able to keep my interest for the most part. Ember is quite a bit of a stronger character in Breaking Point. She exudes more confidence and is able to do things that I don't think she would have been capable of before.
