History. The area that eventually became Lemon Grove was part of Mission San Diego de Alcalá, one of the Spanish missions in California. After Mexico became independent from Spain, the Californios (residents of Alta California) ranched on various land grants. The area that now includes Lemon Grove was granted to Santiago Argüello, who received more than 59,000 acres.

Hey Greg - Thanks for update. Even though it's been almost four decades of distorted accounts associated with Joe's death, this well sourced and documented article serves to set the record straight and allow his family and the special operations community to view Joe's death, as well as Mike, Chuck and Bobby's, as part of a just and noble cause.
