William Lashner - The Barkeep - Description

Victor Carl is the ongoing everyman anti hero Philadelphia lawyer who seeks truth, justice and the American way of life in the series. I typically like William Lashner's books, but the narrator - Patrick Lawlor was so bad he ruined the story. What was one of the most memorable moments of Bagmen? There really wasn't much. I couldn't even finish the book. There were a lot of good wisecracks, but the narration was so horrible I gave up.

Bagmen by William Lashner, a Mysterious Review.

Apparently, underemployed Philadelphia lawyer Victor Carl's first seven cases (A Killer's Kiss, 2007, etc.) have left him sufficiently starry-eyed to be capable of rude disillusionment when he runs into a bruising congressional campaign, and vice versa.

I love William Lashner, and will buy anything he writes ... and I was incredibly happy to see him take Victor Carl out of hiatus. But this is not the best Victor Carl novel I have ever read.
