Before I Fall is the perfect example of this. This story is more Young Adult than some of her others. While her other books have dealt more with adult characters, Before I Fall is the story of two young adults. Both Beth and Noah are dealing with the after effects of military life, although in different ways.

Before I Fall (Falling Series #1) by Jessica Scott | NOOK ...

I've followed Jessica Scott's Twitter for years and I value her perspective. As one who has actually served in the armed forces, she has a lot of intelligent things to say and in some of her prior books, she's written not just good romance, but thoughtful stories period. In reading Before I Fall, one catches hints of this throughout the text.

Thoughts: I was very pleasantly surprised to find myself enjoying this Before I Fall by Jessica Scott - particularly since New Adult is a bit of a hit or miss genre for me. There were quite a few things that kept me compelled to keep reading this one, however - one of them being the down-to-earth, but oh-so-admirable characters.
