Bark Stories Lorrie Moore

An Amazon Best Book of the Month, March 2014: Here's a reason Lorrie Moore is so beloved by her baby boomer brethren: she's smart, she's funny, her eye is even sharper than her tongue. In Bark, her latest collection of stories, all those qualities are well on display. "He had never been involved with the mentally ill before," she ...

Amazon.com: Bark: Stories (9780307594136): Lorrie Moore: Books

I'm a big fan from way back, but "Bark" is an uneven batch of stories -- a brilliant sentence or two or three hidden in each one -- and, like all Lorrie Moore stories, they are stories in which people are gifted with the ability to say the things we all think of saying (or wished we had said) long after the moment we needed our tongue and brain ...

Book Review: 'Bark,' By Lorrie Moore Lorrie Moore's new collection, Bark, contains eight stories — but our reviewer Alan Cheuse says only two of them really stand out. But, he adds, those two ...

Book Review: 'Bark,' By Lorrie Moore : NPR

Taken as a whole... 'Bark' seems to lack the chutzpah and hope-in-the-face-of-hopelessness that characterizes so much of Moore's earlier stuff. Lorrie Moore, bestselling and widely anthologized author, has returned with her first collection of short stories in 15 years. Moore's Midwest is a world ...

Lorrie Moore's 'Bark' - The New York Times

Lorrie Moore and dogs are two of my favorite things. But there's only one dog in Bark (one too-preciously named Cat), and not nearly enough of the richness of her previous novels and story collections. There is something unfinished or not quite ripe about Bark. I read it twice, trying to love it, but have finally made up my mind to merely ...
