This is the last part of my DAY OF THE TRIFFIDS retrospective. My look back at the original novel can be found here, the film version here, and the 1981 BBC TV adaptation here.. Prior to re-watching the most recent (2009) BBC adaptation of DAY OF THE TRIFFIDS, I'd only seen it once before. I had to psych myself up to watch it again, because my overriding memory of the 3 hours miniseries was ...

AUTUMN: THE CITY | David Moody - author of AUTUMN and HATER

Horrifying and suspenseful, the Autumn Series is not your traditional gore-filled zombie tale. According to Bram Stoker Award-winning author Jonathan Maberry, "With Autumn, David Moody paints a picture of a marvelously bleak dystopian future where the world belongs to the hungry dead. It's the creepy start to a compelling series."
