Kristy Kiernan A novel about a pair of sisters, one of whom is a "math genius". The title refers to the fact that she thinks "eyecue" is a disease when she first hears as a child that she has a high one and warns her sister to stay away.

MathFiction: Catching Genius (Kristy Kiernan)

Kiernan is a delight, and has received praise for her trademark "lilting and luminous voice" (Water for Elephants author Sarah Gruen) and the "effortless grace" (Tasha Alexander). Her first novel, Catching Genius, is a word-of-mouth bookgroup favorite, and her second, Matters of Faith, was a bronze medalist in the Florida Book Awards.
