A last stand is a military situation in which a body of troops holds a defensive position in the face of overwhelming odds. The defensive force usually takes very heavy casualties or is completely destroyed. Troops may make a last stand due to a perceived duty; because they are defending a tactically crucial point; to buy time to enable a trapped army to escape, due to fear of execution if ...

Famous for: Dictator of the Soviet Union The reality: Although the Communists presented him as a grandfatherly figure, an image still surviving today, he began the Soviet Union's descent into massive political violence. "You can't make an omelet without breaking a few eggs," as he put it. He wasn't nearly as bad as his successor, though if he'd lived longer he might well have been.
