I. Introduction. On December 6, 1969, an estimated three hundred thousand people converged on the Altamont Motor Speedway in Northern California for a massive free concert headlined by the Rolling Stones and featuring some of the era's other great rock acts. 1 Only four months earlier, Woodstock had shown the world the power of peace and love and American youth.

When my childhood home burned down in a forest fire the summer I was 17, my faith leaders hinted that it could have been because of my family's generational sin. I tried to comfort myself with reassurances that God was both all-powerful and all good and that human suffering was all part of His Plan. But for the first time since I joined the church, those answers came up short.
